

YES, I WANT FREEDOM!

WHAT NEXT?

Because the Unbound model of deliverance ministry is so person-centered, it's best to prepare before coming in order to participate fully. How?

Read Part I of Unbound: A Practical Guide to Deliverance (available on Amazon or at heartofthefather.com)

or

Attend a Live Free! or Unbound: Freedom in Christ conference

or

Listen to the audio of Live Free! conference talks linked at livefreeub.net; you can also buy DVDs/CDs of the Freedom in Christ conference from Heart of the Father.

Then use the "request prayer" form at the bottom of any page on our website to begin the process of scheduling prayer ministry.

If you are not local, visit heartofthefather.com where you can learn about Unbound ministry worldwide and find prayer teams near you.

The Five Keys of Unbound

- + Repent and believe the good news that Jesus came to save you from sin and death
- + Forgive those who have hurt you
- + Close the doors you have opened to evil by naming and renouncing it
- + Stand in the authority that Jesus gives you and tell the devil to leave you alone
- + Receive your Father's blessing and come home to his house

Unbound prayer ministry

WHAT IS DELIVERANCE?

Most people misunderstand deliverance. They think that it's only for possessed individuals, and that it can only be done by a trained and appointed exorcist. Others believe that it's something only for "charismatics," or that it's necessarily frightening. People often confuse deliverance with emotional or mental healing.

None of these capture the true nature of deliverance ministry, a ministry that simply acknowledges the reality of spiritual battle in every human life. Yet Christians, while subject to Satan's constant opposition, can never be overpowered by the enemy; he can only gain authority in their lives to the degree that they give him access.

How? By believing lies, engaging in sin, harboring unforgiveness, forming unholy and unhealthy relationships, or approaching the occult with fear or fascination.

Deliverance ministry closes these doors and releases people to live freely, secure in their identity as God's beloved children. With new freedom, people can move forward into the unique purpose and plan that God always intended.

As such, deliverance does closely align with healing. For the greatest healing of all is healing from sin and from its inevitable outcomes: misery, destruction, and eventually death.

Deliverance is resurrection!

Who needs to "get unbound"?

Unbound ministry applies the Gospel of Jesus to your story.

It helps you overcome whatever blocks you from blessing

- sin patterns you can't break
- anger or sadness you can't shake
- inability to receive love
- reactions and responses that get you nowhere

Unbound deliverance prayer is about ENCOUNTER with Jesus, EDUCATION in discipleship, and EMPOWERMENT for mission.

Unbound is for everyone, everywhere.

Unbound is for you!

WHAT HAPPENS IN PRAYER?

Many models of healing or deliverance prayer rely on the gifting of the minister, perhaps accompanied by supernatural signs or physical manifestations. Unbound ministry, in contrast, is really led by the person receiving prayer.

Trained prayer leaders come alongside individuals seeking deliverance in a one-time private appointment lasting an hour or two.

The first part of the prayer session is best described as active listening guided by the Holy Spirit. Many people experience this as a time of revelation, when they recognize how they have accepted deception leading to bondage, and they understand in a new way the truth that sets them free. In the next part of the prayer time, the prayer leader guides the person in praying through the five keys to freedom.

Through Unbound prayer, many people experience a tangible sense of relief and the ability to move past long-time emotional and spiritual blocks. They learn how to consistently win their personal and ongoing spiritual battles. Most of all, they experience the truth of the Father's deep, unchanging, personal love.
