

YES, I WANT FREEDOM!

WHAT NEXT?

Because our model of deliverance prayer is so person-centered, it's best to prepare before coming in order to participate fully. Watch or listen to the conference talks available on our website (three talks, 30 -60 min each)

Then submit the "request prayer" form at the bottom of any page on our website and we will reach out to you. Note that this is a request, not a reservation. We will do our best, but we may not have the resources to help you as you need.

Appointment locations throughout lower MI; if you are not local, Zoom appointments are possible*

Three Steps

+ Lay it down

Surrender to God your past, your pain, your problems, and your pride.

+ Let it go

Give and receive mercy

+ Make new choices

Say no to the enemy and his plans for you and say yes to God. Close any doors you have opened to evil and open the door to the Holy Spirit

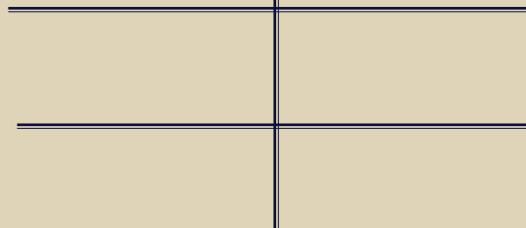

∞ Freedom

Glory be to God, whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we could ever ask or imagine!

—Ephesians 3:20

WHAT IS DELIVERANCE?

Most people misunderstand deliverance. They think that it's only for possessed individuals, and that it can only be done by a trained and appointed exorcist. Others believe that it's something only for "charismatics," or that it's necessarily frightening. People often confuse deliverance with emotional or mental healing.

None of these capture the true nature of deliverance ministry, a ministry that simply acknowledges the reality of spiritual battle in every human life.

Yet Christians, standing firm in faith, while subject to Satan's constant opposition, can never be overpowered by the enemy; he can only gain authority in their lives to the degree that they give him access.

How? By believing lies about self, others, and God; by making false judgments or promises, by engaging in sinful behavior, by serving "idols," by harboring unforgiveness, by unholy and unhealthy attachments and relationships, by doubt in God or in his goodness and love, or by approaching the occult with fear or fascination.

Deliverance ministry closes these doors and releases people to live freely, secure in their identity as God's beloved children.

With new freedom, people can move forward into the unique purpose and plan that God always intended.

As such, deliverance does closely align with healing. For the greatest healing of all is healing from sin and from its inevitable outcomes: misery, destruction, and eventually death.

Deliverance is resurrection!

Who needs deliverance?

Deliverance prayer applies the Gospel of Jesus to your story.

It helps you overcome whatever blocks you from blessing

- sin patterns you can't break
- anger or sadness you can't shake
- inability to receive love
- reactions and responses that get you nowhere

Deliverance prayer is about ENCOUNTER with Jesus, EDUCATION in discipleship, and EMPOWERMENT for mission.

Deliverance is for everyone, everywhere.

Deliverance is for you!

WHAT HAPPENS IN A PRAYER APPOINTMENT?

Many models of healing or deliverance prayer rely on the gifting of the minister, perhaps accompanied by supernatural signs or physical manifestations. Live Free ministry, in contrast, is really led by the person receiving prayer.

Trained prayer leaders come alongside individuals seeking deliverance in a one-time private appointment lasting an hour or two.

The first part of the prayer session is best described as active listening guided by the Holy Spirit. Many people experience this as a time of revelation, when they recognize how they have accepted deception leading to bondage, and they understand in a new way the truth that sets them free. In the next part of the prayer time, the prayer leader guides the person in praying through three simple steps to freedom.

After prayer, there is often a tangible sense of relief and the ability to move past long-time emotional and spiritual blocks. Not only do people experience freedom, but they have learned a way to consistently win personal and ongoing spiritual battles.

Most of all, they experience the truth of the Father's deep, unchanging, personal love.

You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. —John 8:32
